WEBELOS-REE

EVENTS PACKAGE

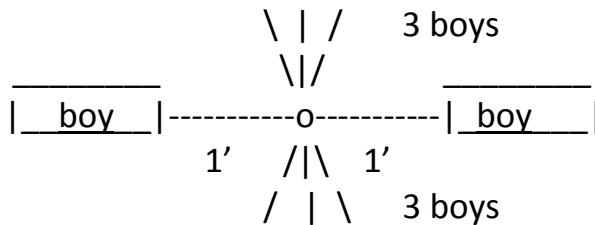

(6 Events + Bonus)

Stable as a Sequoia - Knots and Teamwork

Objective: The Den, joined together, is to travel over a course as quickly as possible.

Equipment: 1) A piece of rope 4 ½ feet long for each boy in the Den.
 2) A ring of rope 2" in diameter
 3) Stop watch

Procedure: Each boy in the Den of 4 to 8 boys takes a rope and ties a Bowline around his waist making sure the rope is snug around his middle. Next each boy ties the other end of his rope to the 2" ring of rope using a Taut-Line Hitch. He then adjusts the taut-line hitch until there is only 1 foot of rope between his waist and the center ring. (See drawing). The den then walks from point A to point B as quickly as possible.

Starting point "A" - - - - - 50' - - - - - "B" Stopping point

Rules: 1) Work as a team
 2) Care must be given to proceed safely.
 3) No one may be dragged by the group.

Scoring: Timed event, plus points for each correct knot in addition to the spirit points. Maximum time is 15 minutes.

Forging the Big Bend - Creative Thinking and Teamwork

Objective: The Den works together to build a pipeline from point A to point B in order to transport a small ball across the Big Bend River.

Equipment: 1) 8 sections of PVC pipe at various angles
2) 1 small ball
3) 1 pail
4) A stopwatch

Procedure: Each boy picks up a section of pipe and lines up in a straight line all facing the same direction. At the signal from the judge, the first boy drops the ball into his pipe, being careful that it does not roll out the other end. The second boy aligns his pipe with the end of the first boy's pipe and they move the ball into the second pipe. The first boy then moves to the end of the line. The second boy moves the ball to the third boy and so on, until the ball is dropped into the pail at point B, which is 50 feet away.

Rules: 1) Feet cannot move while the ball is being transferred from one pipe to the next.
2) The boys cannot change position in line once the event has started. You can only move from front of the line to the end of the line after you have transferred the ball to the next member.
3) If the ball falls out of a pipe before being deposited in the pail, the Den must start over at point A. The boy who was doing the passing is now the head of the line.
4) You cannot block the end of the pipes at any time. Hands can only hold the pipe and move them around as needed to transfer. You cannot hold the two pipe ends together with any part of your body.

Scoring: Timed event with a maximum time of 15 minutes in addition to the spirit points.

5) Care must be given to proceed safely.

Scoring: Timed event with a maximum time of 15 minutes in addition to the spirit points.

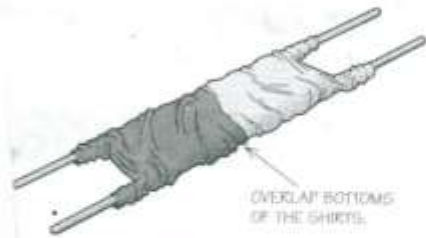

Single-Rescuer Assists

When an injured person must be moved, choose the method carefully to avoid making the injuries worse and to avoid injuring yourself. Recommended assists for a single rescuer include the following.

Walking assist. If the victim is conscious, has only minor injuries, and can move, you can safely help the person walk. Put one of the victim's arms around your neck. Hold that hand. Place your other arm around the person's waist.

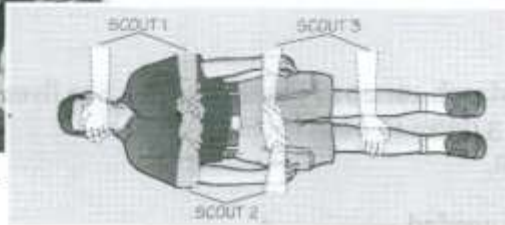

Four-handed seat. When no equipment is available, the four-handed seat is the easiest two-rescuer carry. It is safe only if the victim is conscious and can hold on. Position the hands as shown.

Shirt stretcher. Make a stretcher out of two poles (longer than the victim is tall), for example, strong branches, tool handles, oars, or the poles from a wall tent. Secure two Scout shirts (inside out, with all the buttons buttoned) over the poles to form a stretcher. If possible, overlap the bottoms of the shirts to form a more secure bedding.

Hammock carry. Three to six rescuers stand on either side of the victim and link hands beneath the person.
